

The Business of Publishing - What Every Author Needs to Know

San Francisco Writers Conference

February 2009

I. The State of the Industry

Trends in nonfiction

- Narrative - history, biography, journalism, memoir - character, story: imagine the movie
- Practical - self-help, pursuit of happiness, news you can use
- Concept history (i.e. a noun, preferably one that changed the world) - Cod, Salt, Secrets of Saffron, The Victorian Internet, The Turk, Zero, Longitude, Uncommon Grounds, The Devil's Cup, A Mind of Its Own, A History of the Breast, The Pencil, The Potato, Walking...

Trends in fiction

- Great storytelling is timeless

Trends in memoir

- Truth, not just truthiness, matters

Structural changes in the book business

- Retailer concentration: B&N, Borders, Amazon vs. independents
- Publisher concentration
  - Bertelsmann: Random House (Knopf, RH/Ballantine, Bantam, Crown, Doubleday...)
  - Pearson: Penguin (Dutton, Gotham, Putnam, Riverhead, Tarcher, Viking...)
  - News Corp: HarperCollins (Collins, Harper, Morrow...)
  - Viacom: Simon & Schuster (Free Press, Touchstone, Scribner...)
  - Hachette: Grand Central Books, Little Brown, Bulfinch...
  - Holtzbrinck: Macmillan (FSG, Henry Holt, St. Martin's Press, Palgrave-Macmillan...)
  - Perseus: Basic, DaCapo, Running Press, Seal, Public Affairs...
- Changes in the academic presses
- Small publishers always exist
- New modes of self-publishing and electronic publishing - POD, online

Changing roles of authors, editors and agents

- Acquisitions vs. editing
- Hollywood model
- Everyone wants "platform" and "synergy"

II. Implications for Authors

Build your brand

- Resume, credentials, other writing, domain name

Recruit a great management team

- "Board of Directors"
- Editorial resources - writing group, copy editor, consulting editor, book doctor
- Lawyer, accountant, literary agent
- Booksellers

III. From Idea to Book Tour

Fiction/Memoir: "Missouri Rules"

Non-fiction: Book proposal = Business Plan

- Substance
  - Idea - What is the book about? What is your thesis or argument? Book or article?
  - Table of contents - Detailed, narrative road map for the book you want to write
  - Sample chapter(s) - Representative, polished to a high gloss
- Style
  - Author credentials - Expertise, exposure: "brand"
  - Target audience - Size, composition, accessibility
  - Competition
  - Marketing and promotion - Blurbs, media, speaking, serialization
- Synopsis
  - Write the back cover, inside flaps

Selling your book

- Pitch, wait, negotiate
- Key contract terms
  - Advance and royalties
  - Territories, subsidiary rights
  - Schedule, deliverables, acceptance, cancellation and revisions
  - Indemnification
  - Reversion of rights

Writing your book
